

The Next Chapter:

Hexagone MMA Unveils Ambitious €100K Tournament Series

After captivating fans with its world-class events and rising stars, Hexagone MMA is once again raising the bar. The French promotion, now recognized as Europe's fastest-growing MMA organization, has firmly positioned itself as a key player on the European stage.

In 2025, Hexagone MMA hosted 15 events across Europe, from France to Belgium, the Netherlands and Hungary while expanding its broadcast footprint to more than 15 broadcast partners worldwide. Each event has reinforced the organization's mission: to deliver top-tier entertainment while offering fighters a professional and ethical platform to shine.

Now, the French organization is entering a new era with the launch of the Hexagone MMA Tournament Series, set to begin in January 2026. Featuring multiple divisions, including Lightweight and Middleweight, the competition will unfold through independent tournaments, each awarding the winner a €100,000 prize. Fighters from across Europe will battle their way through elimination rounds, showcasing their talent, determination, and showmanship as they fight for glory and recognition on the European stage.

This initiative reflects the philosophy of Laurent Pourrut, Hexagone MMA's president: to create a fair, transparent, and fighter-focused organization.

More than just tournaments, these events are career accelerators, giving the European athletes the chance to gain visibility, grow their fanbase, and build a sustainable career in MMA.

Building on its strong momentum, Hexagone MMA's 2026 season will also feature over 15 events across Europe, including stops in France, Hungary, Germany, Spain, and the Middle East with over 5,000 fans expected at each show.

Driven by a clear ambition: to build the finest French and European MMA organization, Hexagone MMA keeps expanding its reach and reputation.